O'Donoghue. and / or its/their successors in interest or assignees and/or its/ their individually licensed officers in their individual capacity any of which may act of its/their authorized officer(s) any employee(s)

As a true and lawful agent of the grantor named above for and in the name, place, and stend of said grantor from this date and in all Customs Districts, and in no other name, to make, endorse, sign, declare, or swear to any entry, withdrawal, declaration, certificate, bill of lading, carnet or other document required by law or regulation in Connection with the importation, transportation, or exportation of any merchandise shipped or consigned by or to said grantor; to perform any act or condition which may be required by law or regulation in connection with such merchandise; to receive any merchandise deliverable to said grantor;

To make endorsements on bills of lading conferring authority to transfer title, make entry or collect drawback, and to make, sign, declare or swear to any statement, schedule, supplemental schedule, certificate of delivery, certificate of manufacture, certificate of manufacture and delivery, abstract or abstract of manufacturing records, declaration of proprietor on drawback entry, or any other affidavit or document which may be required by law or regulation for drawback purposes, regardless of whether such bill of lading, sworn statement, schedule, certificate, abstract, declaration, or other affidavit or document is intended for filing in any customs district. To supply copies of all documentation as required by the relevant Customs Regulations to principal's designated freight forwarder instead of sending them directly to principal as importer of record.

If you are the importer of record, payment to the broker will not relieve you of liability for Customs charges (duties, taxes, or other debts owed Customs) in the event the chargers are not paid by the broker. Therefore, if you pay by check, Customs charges may be paid with a separate check payable to "U.S. Customs Service" which shall be delivered to Customs by the Broker. This includes a copy of the brokerage charges and any other document required to be transmitted to principal as importer of record;

To sign, seal, and deliver for and as the act of said grantor any bond required by law or regulation in connection with the entry or withdrawal of imported merchandise or merchandise exported with or without benefit of drawback, or in connection with the entry, clearance, lading, unlading or navigation of any vessel o other means of conveyance owned or operated by said grantor; and any and all bonds which may be voluntarily given and accepted under applicable Grantor, and any and all bonds which may be voluntarily given and accepted under laws and regulations, consignee's and owner's declarations provided for in section 485, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, or affidavits in connection with the entry of merchandise.

To sign and swear to any document and to perform any act that may be necessary or required by law or regulation in connection with the entering, clearing, lading, unlading, or operation of any vessel or other means of conveyance owned or operated by said grantor. To authorize other Customs Brokers to act as grantor's agent; to receive, endorse and collect checks issued for Customs Brokers to act as grantor's name drawn on the Treasurer of the United States, to accept service of process on behalf of grantor;

And generally to transact at the customs houses in any distract and all customs business, including making, signing, and filing of protests under section 514 of the Tariff Act of 1930, in which said grantor is or may be concerned or interested and which may properly be transacted or performed by an agent and attorney, giving to said agent and attorney full power and authority to do anything whatever requisite to be done in the premises as fully as said grantor could do if present and acting, hereby ratifying and confirming all that said agent and attorney shall lawfully do by virtue of these presents; the foregoing power of attorney to remain in full force and effect until the _____ day of _____ 20____, or until notice of revocation in writing is duly given to and received by a District Director of Customs. If the donor of this power of attorney is a partnership, the said power shall in no case have any force or effect after the expiration of two (2) years from the date of its execution.
